

NOMINATION AND REMUNERATION COMMITTEE CHARTER

The Board has resolved to establish a separate Nomination and Remuneration Committee. When considering matters of nomination or remuneration, the Board functions in accordance with this Nomination and Remuneration Committee Charter.

Purpose of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee

The purpose of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee is to assist the Board in fulfilling its corporate governance responsibilities with regard to:

- Board appointments, re-elections and performance;
- Directors' induction programs;
- The remuneration framework for Non-Executive Directors;
- The remuneration and incentive framework, including any proposed equity incentive awards for the Managing Director and senior executives; and
- Recommendations on remuneration and incentive awards for the Managing Directors and senior executives.

Duties and Responsibilities

The Committee is specifically charged with the following duties and responsibilities:

Board Composition

Review the composition of the Board on an annual basis and make recommendations to the Board, where considered necessary, to ensure that the Board comprises directors with an appropriate mix of skills and experience.

Board Appointments

Obtaining consent from candidates for appointment for the Company to conduct any background checks as to the person's character, experience, education, criminal record and bankruptcy history, completing these checks and reporting findings to the Board.

Obtaining from candidates for appointment details of his or her other commitments and an indication of time involved and an acknowledgement to the company that he or she will have sufficient time to fulfil his or her responsibilities as a director.

The terms and conditions of the appointment of Non-Executive directors are to be set out in a formal letter of appointment, which will typically deal with the matters outlined in Annexure 1.

Board Performance

Providing guidance to the Chairman of the Board in relation to review of the performance of the Board, its committees and individual directors.

Induction Program

Each new Director should undertake an induction program to enable them to gain an understanding of:

- the Company's operations and its financial, strategic, operational and risk management position;
- their rights, duties and responsibilities and those of the Company's management and
- Board and Committee meeting arrangements.

Remuneration Policies

Executive Remuneration and Incentive Policies

The Committee is to make decisions with respect to appropriate remuneration and incentive policies for Executive Directors and Senior Executives which:

- will motivate Executive Directors and Senior Executives to pursue long term growth and success of the Company within an appropriate control framework;
- demonstrate a clear correlation between key performance and remuneration; and
- will align the interests of key leadership with the long-term interests of the Company's shareholders.

Remuneration Structure

Executive Remuneration

The Committee is to ensure that:

- executive remuneration packages involve a balance between fixed and incentive pay, reflecting short and long term performance objectives appropriate to the Company's circumstances and objectives;
- a proportion of executives' remuneration is structured in a manner designed to link reward to corporate and individual performances; and
- recommendations are made to the Board with respect to the quantum of bonuses to be paid to executives.

Remuneration paid by the Company should be reasonable and fair, taking into account the Company's legal and industrial obligations, labour market conditions and scale of business.

The Managing Director and Senior Executives' remuneration is to be reviewed on an annual basis. From time to time, a review of the total remuneration package by an independent consultant in this field may be undertaken to provide an independent reference point.

Any termination payments for Executive Directors must be agreed in advance and reflected in their Service Agreement.

Non-Executive Directors Remuneration and Incentive Policies

The Committee is to ensure that:

- fees paid to Non-Executive Directors are within the aggregate amount approved by Shareholders and make recommendations to the Board with respect to the need for amendments to this aggregate amount at the Company's AGM;
- Non-Executive directors are remunerated by way of fees (in the form of cash and/or superannuation benefits);
- Non-Executive Directors are not provided with retirement benefits other than statutory superannuation entitlements; and
- Non-Executive directors are not entitled to participate in equity-based remuneration schemes designed for executives without due consideration and appropriate disclosure to the Company's shareholders.

To the extent that the Company adopts a different remuneration structure for its Non-Executive Directors, the Committee shall document its reasons for the purpose of disclosure to stakeholders.

Incentive Plans and Benefits Programs

The Committee is to:

- review and make recommendations concerning long-term incentive compensation plans, including the use of share options and other equity-based plans. Except as otherwise delegated by the Board, the Committee will act on behalf of the Board to administer equity-based and employee benefit plans, and as such will discharge any responsibilities under those plans including making and authorising grants, in accordance with the terms of those plans;
- ensure that incentive plans are designed around appropriate and realistic performance targets that measure relative performance and provide rewards when they are achieved; and
- continually review and if necessary improve any existing benefit programs established for employees.

Other

The Committee may conduct any special projects or investigations in consultation with, or at the request of the Board as deemed necessary.

Reporting

The Committee shall keep the Board informed of its activities through the minutes of all of its meetings and formally advise the Board of any matters or recommendations requiring attention by the Board.

Membership

Membership of the Committee are non-executive Directors of the Company.

The Company Secretary is Secretary to the Committee.

The current members of the Committee are:

Mr Rodney Michael Joyce (Chairman)
Mr Gordon Dunbar
Mr Graham Riley

Authority and Access

The Committee has the authority of the Board to review any aspect or activity of Gascoyne Resources Ltd and any of its controlled entities and associated companies and other investments.

The Committee will have direct access to Senior Management.

The Committee is empowered to retain persons having particular skills and expertise to assist the Committee in fulfilling its responsibilities.

Meetings

The Committee shall meet as often as is required to reasonably discharge its responsibilities which shall be at least once a year and otherwise as required.

Meetings shall be convened by the Chairman of the Committee. For each meeting an agenda will be prepared and circulated to Committee Members and other Directors prior to the meeting.

Any Committee Member may request any item to be included on the agenda.

Any Member of the Committee may request the Chairman to convene a meeting.

The meetings and proceedings of the Committee shall be governed by the provisions of the Constitution regulating meetings and proceedings of Directors, so far as these provisions are applicable.

Decisions will be determined by a majority vote, but the Chairperson will immediately report the fact of any dissenting vote to the Board when reporting the decision to the Board.

The Chairperson will not have a casting vote.

Minutes of each meeting shall be prepared by the Secretary and circulated to each Committee Member and Director.

Self Assessment

The Committee shall assess its effectiveness periodically, with a view to ensuring that its performance accords with best practice. The Committee's Charter shall be reviewed annually and updated as required.
